Not the "Whole Thing" But

The neat, nobby, stylish and tasteful work that we are daily displaying entitles us to a place at the head of the procession which we proposed to keep. We're not standing still. We're going ahead and can take you along with us if you'll say the word.

For artistic novelty and richness of design no goods equal ours. In our Repository are some styles unlike anything in carriagesdom. SOLE AGENTS COLUMBUS BUGGY COMPANY.

SIX MILLIONS
FOR A WAIF

NEW YORK, March 21.—Frank Conger of Brooklyn, who died suddenly a few days ago in a Detroit hotel, bequeathed to his adopted daughter, Cressa Stewart Conger, whom he took from the arms of her dead mother a dozen years ago in a railroad wreck at Hamburg, N. Y., an estate of $6,000,000.

The girl is now 14 years of age and for twelve years has been thought by many to be the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conger. The will has been filed with the Surrogate of Ithaca, N. Y. Mr. Conger left no natural heirs, and the document states that the girl, whose income will be $50,000 a year, was the daughter of the Rev. E. E. Stewart and wife of Rochester, N. Y., both of whom were killed on March 6, 1890, in the wreck on the Lake Shore road at Hamburg, N. Y.

Ten persons were killed and a score injured that night. During a blizzard a passenger train broke in two on a heavy grade and the runaway portion, consisting of a drawing room coach and four heavy sleepers, overtook the day coach and smashed it into kindling wood.

George E. Allen, at that time general northern passenger agent of the Erie; Harry T. Jaeger of the same road, and Frank Conger, hurried from the drawing room coach to aid the victims. Over the wreckage they clambered until they were halted by the cries of an infant. It was some time before the child could be located, but finally Mr. Conger found her. On a pile of wreckage, half covered by drifting snow, lay a dead woman and in her arms lay a beautiful babe. The baby was taken back into the warm drawing room car none too soon, for she was nearly unconscious. Mrs. Conger, an invalid, was in the car, and to her care the baby was given.

Mr. Conger saw in the child's dress a Masonic pin. As he was a prominent member in the Masonic order, he made immediate arrangements for the care of the bodies of the father and mother of the child, took up a subscription among the Masons on the train and when Buffalo was reached, supplemented it by another appeal to the members of the order in that city. He kept the child at the hotel in Buffalo where he and Mrs. Conger remained until the coroner's inquest had been held. Releases were obtained from the grandparents of the babe and Cressa was legally made the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conger.

Mr. Conger bequeathed a life interest in his estate to the widow and an annuity of $5500 to the widow of a friend, for whom he had provided since her husband's death.

MARCONI AT CAPE BRETON

NEW YORK, March 21.—Signor Marconi arrived at Sydney from Ottawa, says a Halifax special to the Tribune.

With his assistants he will today select the site for his wireless station, which is likely to be Table Head, Glass Bay.

The work of erecting the station will be pushed ahead night and day. The station will be ready for operation before the coronation. The Cape Breton station will be completed before work is resumed at Cape Cod.

Marconi was met at the Sydney station by a great crowd, including about 500 Italians, who are employed at the steel works. They organized a torchlight procession and drew the inventor to his hotel. Marconi made a speech from his carriage.
